

The Night Journey (Isra) And Ascension (Miraj)

Posted on September 19, 2019

The Night Journey (ISRA) and Ascension (MIRAJ) are some of the best supernatural events of the Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him). This wonder is specified and described by the Quran Paak, credible history resources and Hadith resources. It is clarified in the archive how the Miracle of The Night Journey (ISRA) and Ascension (MIRAJ) devices are placed, and their related inquiry comes at the top of a person's priority list.

The significance of the term ISRA implies going during the evening and strolling around evening time, and MIRAJ importance is going and ascending to a high place. The Night Journey (ISRA) and Ascension (MIRAJ) occurred on the twelfth year of the Prophethood of The Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) in MAKKAH. The Night Journey (ISRA) and Ascension (MIRAJ) occasion occurred on the 27th night of the Rajab month. This occasion followed the call from the Almighty Allah, and this occasion was guided by the Gabriel, Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him), who went from the KABBA in MAKKAH to MASJIS-AL-AQSA in Jerusalem and after that to SKY to the HIGH REALMS and to the PRESENCE of GOD. It is featured in the section of the ISRA and A NAJM in the Quran Paak how the Miracle of The Night Journey (ISRA) and Ascension (MIRAJ) come to happen. The verses regarding The Night Journey (ISRA) and Ascension (MIRAJ) are stated as follows;

Things That Were Given To The Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him);

As a result of the encounter in MIRAJ, the Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) was given three things, which are listed below:

1. To prayers five times a day is equal to the reward of the Fifty Daily Prayers
2. The last two verses of the QURAN PAK chapter are "AL_BAQARA."
3. The "MUQHIMAT, the major sins of the people of the Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) UMMAH, were forgiven, but those who associated Partners with ALLAH were not forgiven.

When Hazrat Muhammad (SAWW) met Almighty Allah, prayers were the main thing Almighty Allah spoke about with Hazrat Muhammad (SAWW). The five Prayers were made compulsory for the Muslims to offer daily. However, in the initial aspect, fifty of the prayers were offered by Almighty Allah as a gift for the Ummah of Muhammad (SAWW). Hence, as per request of Muhammad (SAWW), the prayers were reduced to 5 by Almighty Allah."

The meaning of this glad tiding is not obvious that none of the believers of the Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) will enter HELL. The statement means that any believer's Sin can be forgiven, and the believers of the Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) will not stay in Hell forever, even if the believer is a sinner. (Qur'an 17:1, Abdel Haleem trans., 2004) It is also stated that the believers of the Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) whose sins are less than the will go directly to the PARADISE, and those believers who have more sins will remain in HELL for a specific time period, and as soon as the believer Sin is Purified, they will be in the PARADISE.

It is found that the evening of Isra and Mairaj is when Prophet Muhammad (SAWW) meets with different Prophets while rising to higher skies. Where Prophet Muhammad meets with the different prophets is the other major event that happened on the night of Isra. This night is respectfully celebrated all over the world by Muslims. It is essential for every Muslim to know about this respectful night. However, the meetings and events that happened while meeting with prophets are stated as follows. At each, heaven prophet Muhammad (SAWW) with different prophets:

First Heaven

In the first heaven, Muhammad (SAWW) met with the first prophet of Islam, Hazrat Adam (AS). The bodies have been seen on both the left and right sides of the Adam (AS). When he looked to the right, he smiled because on the right side, there were those souls who were obedient and disciplined, and when he looked to the left, he cried because, on the left side, there were those souls who were disobedient and did not follow the path of Allah Almighty.

Second Heaven

In the second heaven, on the night of the Isra, Muhammad (SAWW) was met with Hazrat Isa (AS) and Hazrat Yahya (AS). Both of them are the great prophets of their time, and they are both martial cousins. However, the Prophet (SAWW) was pleased and welcomed by both of the prophets, and Muhammad (SAWW) was loaded with great news.

Third Heaven

In the third heaven, on the night of the Isra, Muhammad (SAWW) met Hazrat Yusuf. (AS). However, Hazrat Yusuf (AS) is famous for his beauty, and it was the first time Muhammad (SAWW) witnessed it during a meeting with him. Hence, supplication and a warm welcome was given to Hazrat Muhammad (SAWW)

Fourth Heaven

In the fourth heaven, on the night of the Isra, Muhammad (SAWW) met Hazrat Idris (AS), Who also cordially supplicated and welcomed Hazrat Muhammad (SAWW).

Fifth Heaven

In the fifth heaven on the night of the Isra Muhammad (SAWW) was met with the Hazrat Harun (AS), the sibling of the Hazrat Musa (AS), who had also cordially supplicated and welcomed Hazrat Muhammad (SAWW).

Sixth Heaven

In the Sixth heaven, on the night of the Isra, Muhammad (SAWW) was met with the Hazrat Musa (AS), who had also cordially supplicated and welcomed Hazrat Muhammad (SAWW).

Seventh Heaven

At the 'Seventh Heaven', Hazrat Ibrahim (AS) welcomed the Prophet (SAWW). Hazrat Ibrahim (AS) remained with his back laid on Bayt al-Mamur, which is the reproduction of KABBAH on the seventh paradise around which the holy messengers do the Tawaf similarly as Muslims do around the QIBLA on the planet. (Brown, 2009) It was now that the Prophet (SAWW) additionally observed Sidra-tul-Muntaha, which is the tree which denotes that heaven will end, and from that point on, there is the Abode of Allah Almighty.

Isra is the night of the miracles, which are major events in Islam. It is brought into the Knowledge of Muhammad (SAWW) regarding the award for the ummah of the Prophet (SAWW). The Night Journey (ISRA) and Ascension (MIRAJ) are some of the best supernatural events of the Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him). This wonder is specified and described by the Quran Paak, credible history resources and Hadith resources. Isra is the night of the Marjels because Hazrat Muhammad (SAWW) covered a distance of a thousand miles in just a few seconds.

Showing Of Paradise And Hell

On the night of the Isra, paradise and Hell had been shown to the Prophet Muhammad (SAWW). In Hell, there were a lot of people who were receiving different aspects of punishment because they were sinners and disobedient. At the Hell, Hazrat Muhammad (SAWW) saw the adulteress who was eating rotten and fatty meat. Prophet Muhammad also noted that there were those people who were usury takers. Those were those who had big and larger bellies; this made it impossible for those to move here and there. And, at Hell, there were also those who had taken the rights and property of the orphans, and they were bearing the punishment of eating the red hot stones. However, those were the people who were disbelievers and disobedient. Then, on the night of the Isra, the paradise had also been shown to the Prophet Muhammad (SAWW). In Paradise, Hazrat Muhammad (SAWW) sees all aspects of the gifts and blessings enjoyed by paradise dwellers. When he looked to the right, he smiled because, on the right side, there were those souls who were obedient and disciplined. They were those who intended to spend their lives on the path and route defied by Almighty Allah.

References

Abdel Haleem, M. A. S. (Trans.). (2004). The Qur'an. Oxford University Press.

<https://global.oup.com/academic/product/the-quran-9780199535958>

Brown, J. A. C. (2009). Hadith: Muhammad's legacy in the medieval and modern world. Oneworld.

<https://oneworld-publications.com/work/hadith/>